

CA JAYESH MOHANLAL SHETH

ॐ शु द्धोपयोगाय नमः

We bow to all śuddhātmās experiencing pure consciousness

Jayeshbhai is an enlightened soul. He attained self–realisation in 1999, at the age of 38, by pondering and meditating upon the Ultimate Truth, experiencing it and putting it into practice.

A resident of Borivali in Mumbai and a Chartered Accountant by profession, Jayeshbhai sought the truth from an early age. For this purpose, he studied the scriptures of the world's religions. On studying Jainism, without becoming a part of any sect or guru paramparā, he attained the truth and experienced self–realisation.

Since then, he repeatedly experiences the self (truth/pure soul) while studying Jain canonical literature. He has shared the way to attain self–realisation and the tenets of Satya Dharma in his books written for the welfare of all.

Out of compassion, he has shown us the path to attain self–realisation. His path is based on the tenets of the Universal Truth which he realised after years of studying the scriptures and contemplating them. He explains the Satya Dharma in simple language and shows us how to find real happiness by realising and practising the Satya Dharma.

His principles are simple. He emphasises the truth and does not insist on a particular belief/path/religious sect/personality cult, etc.

The seeker must purely be an ātmārthī (one who seeks self–realisation).

The seeker should not have any obstinacy, preconceived notions, perverseness, stubbornness, bias or prejudice regarding any particular belief/path/religious sect/personality cult, etc.

The path of the Satya Dharma is internal. The seeker never shows off. Nor does he seek fame and fortune. He remains focused on the inner self, leading a life of joy and simplicity.

Jayeshbhai lives these teachings in his day-to-day life. He practises the five minor vows to the fullest extent and uses his time optimally in study and reflection. He neither seeks attention nor fame. He does not give public discourses, avoids the spotlight and keeps a low profile.

Jayeshbhai's teachings have been presented beautifully in his books. On reading them, the seeker realises the path that he needs to walk on.

He has written the following books:

सम् यग् दर् शन की वृद्धि (Hindi)

સમ્ યગ્ દર્ શનની રીત (Gujarati)
