

This is my father. I bow to him.
My father loves and cares for me.

This is my mother.

I bow to her. My mother does so many things for me.

She cooks for me, she takes care of me. She loves me.

This is my grandfather.
I bow to him. We go for a walk together.

This is my grandmother. I bow to her.
She tells me the stories.

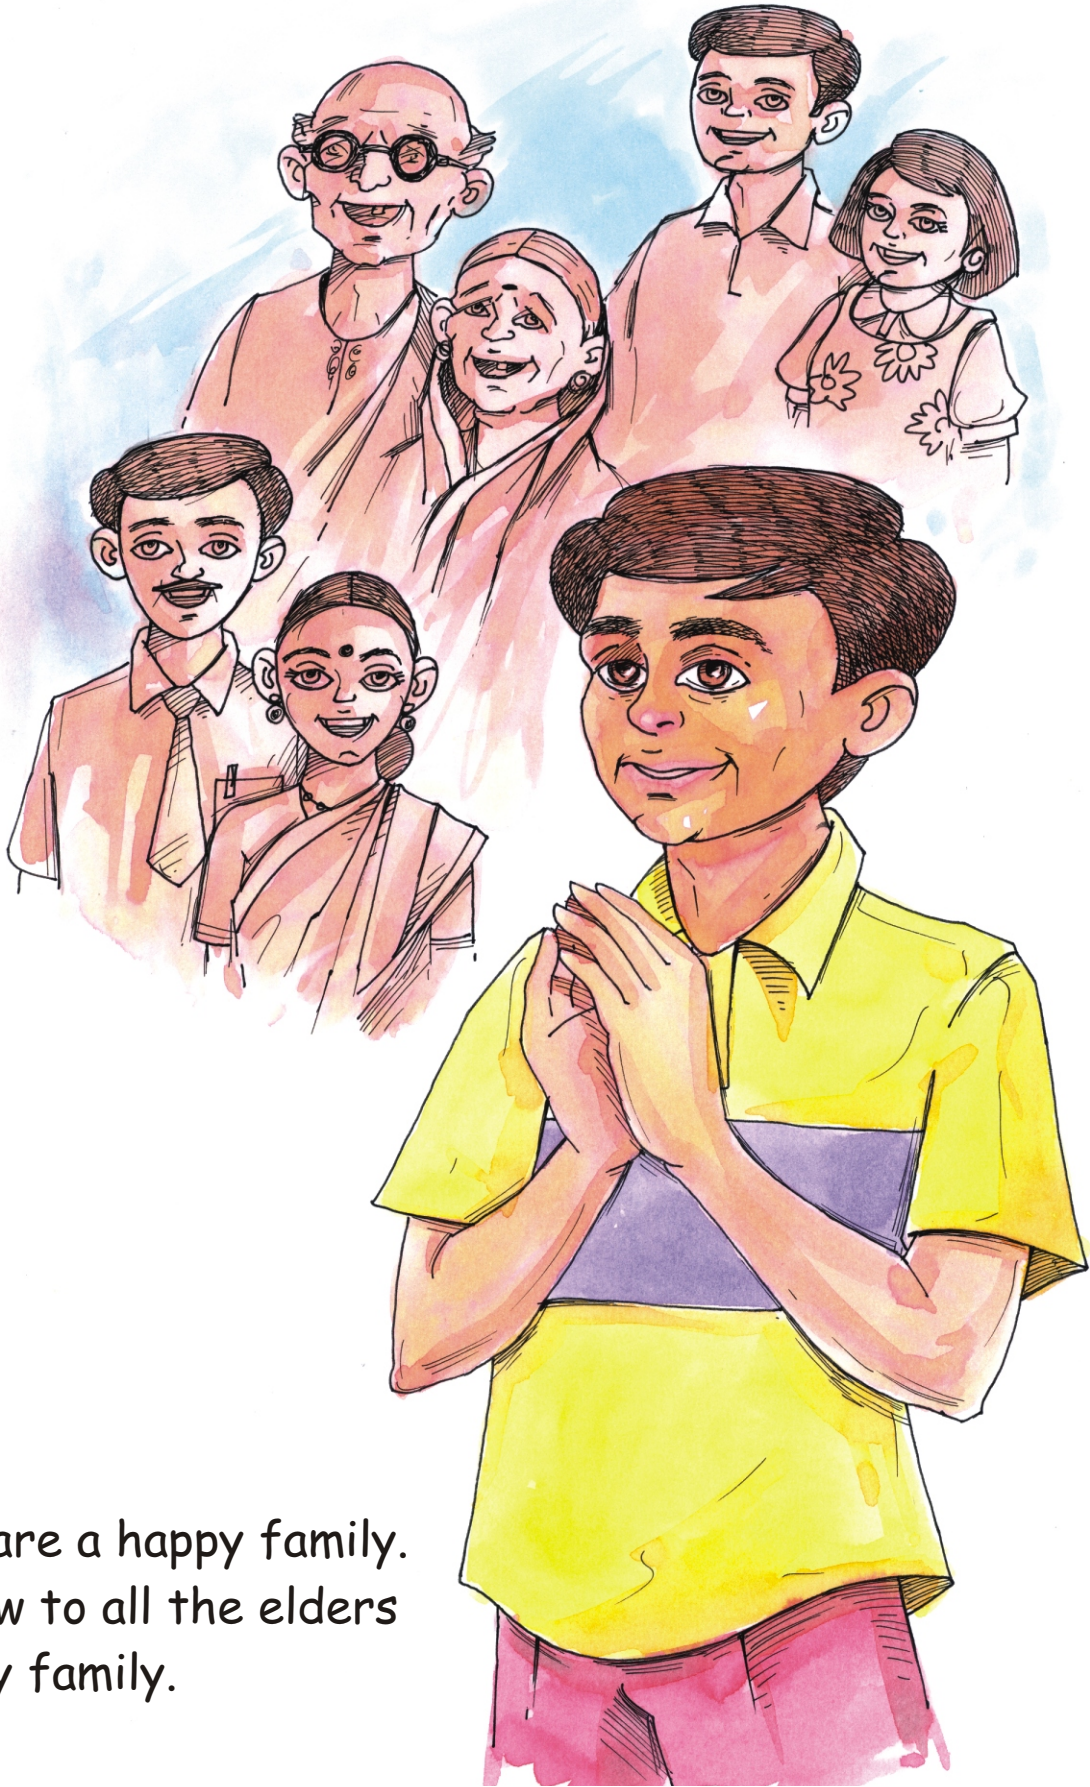

This is my elder brother.
I bow to him. He plays with me.

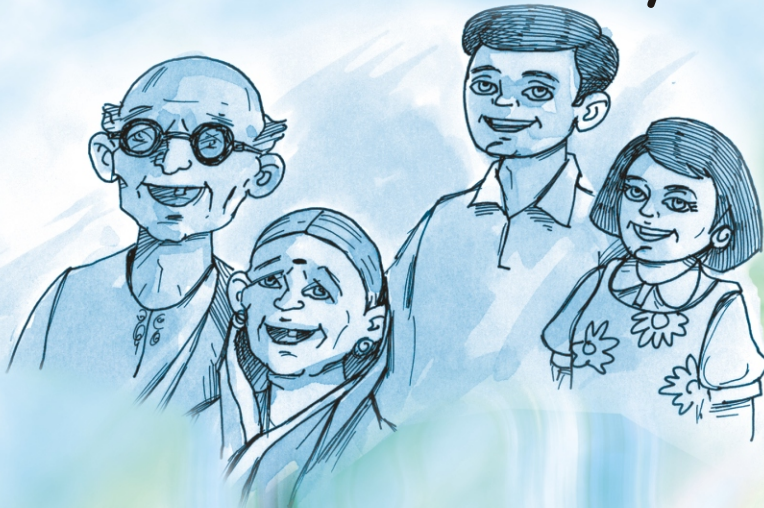

This is my elder sister. I bow to her.
She helps me with my homework.

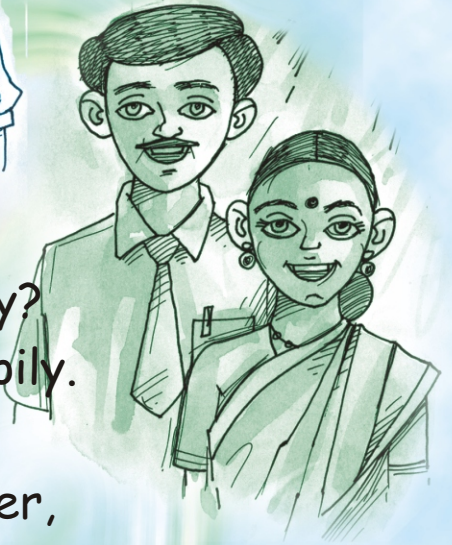

We are a happy family.
I bow to all the elders
in my family.

Have You Met My Family?

Have you met my family?
We live together so happily.

I bow to you grandfather,
I bow to you grandmother.
I bow to you my father,
I bow to you my mother.
I bow to you elder brother,
I bow to you elder sister.

I bow to all my uncles,
I bow to all my aunts.

I bow to all those older than me,
You all are my loving family!

Meena Loves Her Family

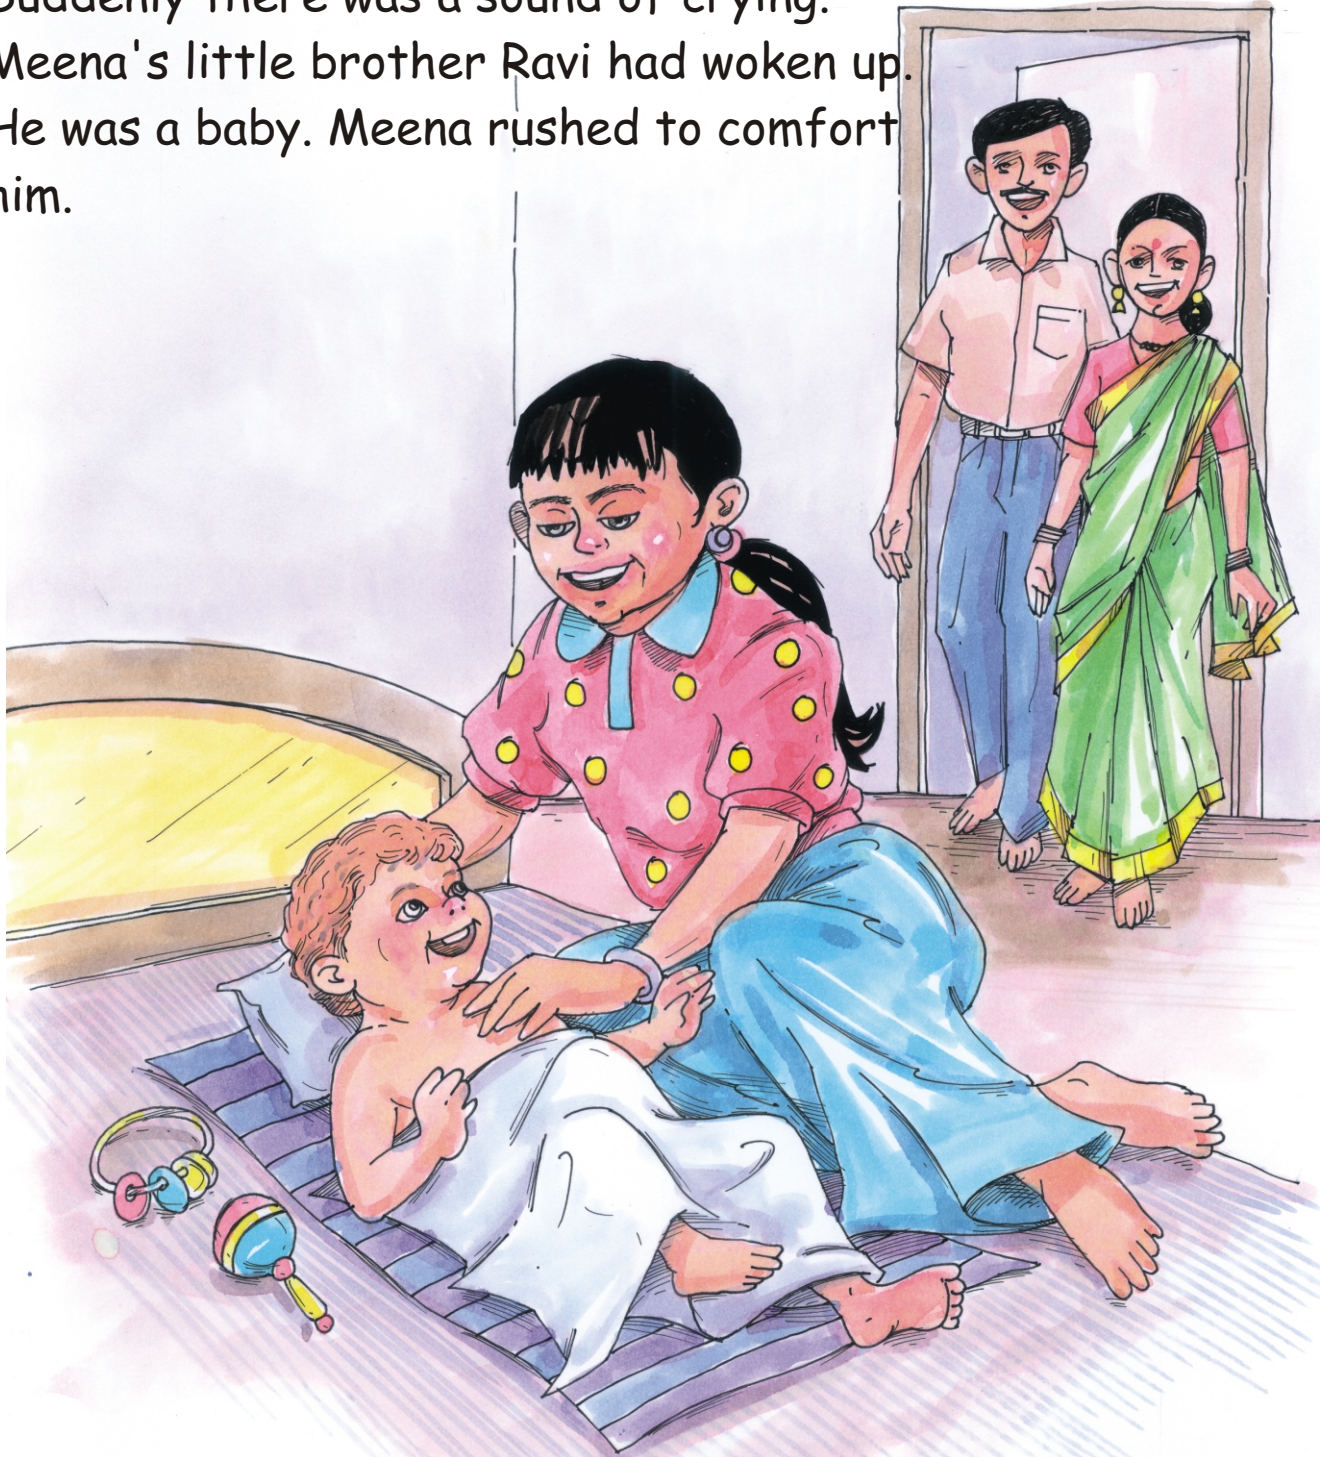

Meena woke up early in the morning. She could hear the sounds from the kitchen. "Clatter, pitter, patter." She loved these sounds. She went into the kitchen; her mother was making tea and breakfast. Meena bowed to her mother. "Jai Jinendra, Mummy."

Her father heard and came near her. Meena bowed and said, "Jai Jinendra," to him. Her father and mother smiled and said "Jai Jinendra." Together they said the Navkar Mantra. After she finished she began helping her parents.

Suddenly there was a sound of crying.
Meena's little brother Ravi had woken up.
He was a baby. Meena rushed to comfort him.

She softly patted him and said "Jai Jinendra baby brother."
She knew that he could not understand, but she greeted him anyway!

Soon her parents came, mother picked up the baby and said,
"Jai Jinendra baby."

Then they sat down together peacefully for a while.

Meena loves her family; she enjoys waking up in the morning and spending time with them.
