

We Must Take Care Our Own Things And Help Around The House

Pinky -
My toys are all over the room.
It looks quite bad;

I think
I will pick my own toys.

Mother -
Oh my, how nice
the room looks.

I hope you put away your toys like this everyday.

Pinky -
Thank you mother.
I will help to keep my house clean.

I Must Help

I Must Help

I must help around the house,
I must help around the house,
Oh yes,
I must help around the house.

I must pick up my toys,
I must pick up my toys,
Oh yes,
I must pick up my toys.

I must pick up my books,
I must pick up my books,
Oh yes,
I must pick up my books.

I must keep my house clean,
I must keep my house clean,
Oh yes,
I must keep my house clean.

Meena Learns To Put Away Her Toys

Once upon a time there was a little girl called Meena who never put her toys away.

If you went to her house you would find her toys everywhere.

You would see them under the dining table, under the sofa, under cupboards.

00 Meena would never listen.

One day Meena once again forgot to put away the toys after she finished playing with them.

A little fairy passing by saw this.

"Hmmm," she said, "It's time we must teach Meena a lesson."
So she made the toys alive.

"Abra cadabra, make all the toys alive!"

Then one by one
all the toys
came alive,
the doll,
the engine,
the blocks,
each one of them was alive.

"Hey Meena," they cried, "put us where we belong!"
Hearing their voices Meena was very surprised.

"Put us back in the correct place, we hate
being all over the place.

It's your work to put us back in our place.

We don't like to be here and there."

"We don't like it under the bed or below the sofa, it's dark there."

They screamed and shouted till Meena put every single toy in its place.

From that day Meena never forgot to put her toys in their places.
